Diploma of Interpreting at TAFESA (live online) Apply now for 2024

Applications now open for the next TAFESA Diploma of Interpreting (live online)

Course start date: 30 July 2024

Our live online course means you can fit your study around your busy schedule and from wherever you are located.

This comprehensive course will be delivered:

- online, by virtual classroom across Australia
- part-time (two evenings a week), over 12 months
- by lecturers who are certified interpreters in your language with extensive experience in the interpreting industry and the NAATI test requirements.

Course content is designed to further develop your interpreting skills and language proficiency to reach the necessary level to become a Certified Provisional Interpreter and a confident practitioner.

If you are already certified, you can use the Diploma of Interpreting as professional development to further improve your skills.

Languages

Eight language specialisations are being offered:

Cantonese	Mandarin
Dari	Italian
Persian	Spanish
Nepali	Vietnamese

The Diploma of Interpreting is endorsed by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI) and is the preferred and recommended pathway by NAATI to the Certified Provisional Interpreter test.
